

4Med+ Corporation Privacy Policy

When you create a new user account or make a purchase through a 4MedPlus website, we collect your name and email address. If you place an order for a service or product that requires payment, we also collect your billing address, shipping address, credit card information, telephone number and other similar information. This information will be used to process your order and if necessary, to contact you regarding the status of your order. You agree and acknowledge that your order may be processed, fulfilled, or serviced by third parties other than 4MedPlus and you understand that 4MedPlus has no control over how such third parties use the information provided to them to process, fulfill or service your order. Therefore, in order to process, fulfill or service your order, you expressly consent to our sharing your information with any necessary third parties. You understand that the use by third party product manufacturers and/or service providers of your personally identifiable information is subject to the privacy policies, if any, of such third parties that may be in effect from time to time and over which 4MedPlus has no control.

4MedPlus may also collect non-personally identifiable information including, without limitation, information regarding your operating system, browser, domain name, and your navigation through and from the 4MedPlus website(s). This information is collected in the aggregate and may be used to improve the 4MedPlus website(s) and for other business purposes. 4MedPlus may provide such aggregate information to third parties. 4MedPlus may also store information on your computer in the form of a "cookie" or similar file. Your web browser may allow you to erase or block such files or notify you when such file is stored. Please check your browser's instructions for further information about such functions, but note that if you enable such functions, you may not be able to fully use the 4MedPlus website(s).

For any information regarding our privacy and security policies, please contact customersupport@4medapproved.com or call (800) 671-1028.
